

Events at stands

IANOS publications (pavilion 15, stand 58)

Saturday 31 May, 18:00

Poet Dinos Christianopoulos

Sunday 1 June, 11:00

Author Yiannis Servetas

LIVANIS publications (pavilion 13, stand 45)

Saturday 31 May, 12:00-14:00

Open discussion

Topic: Politics – diplomacy – national issues

Speakers: authors of works recently published by Livanis:

Giorgos Delastic (The End of the Balkans), Petros Papakonstantinou (The Golden Curtain: the Birth of Totalitarianism), Anastasis Peponis (On the Aegean Issue, Oil, March '87, 'Border Disputes', the European Union and the 'Energy Bridge').

Saturday 31 May, 18:00-20:00

Open discussion

"Social development – social insurance"

Speaker: Alexis Mitropoulos, professor of labour law at Athens University, on the occasion of his new book The End of the Social State? – The Left and the Unions Faced With Reform.

Sunday 1 June, 12:00-14:00

Open discussion

"Politics – diplomacy – national issues"

Speakers: Authors of works recently published by Livanis: Kostas Vergopoulos (The Great Break-up: The Deconstruction of the World) and Ioannis Mazis (The Geopolitics of the Broader Middle East and Turkey).

MINOAS publications (pavilion 13, stand 44a)

Saturday 31 May, 12:00-12:30 & 13:00-13:30

Dora the Young Explorer ;14:00-14:30 SpongeBob SquarePants ;15:00-15:30 Teddy Bear: Forever Friends

Minoas publications invite you to visit their stand and travel into the magical world of books. Adults will discover our new literary titles and children can meet their favourite heroes, Dora the Young Explorer, SpongeBob SquarePants and loveable Teddy Bear from Forever Friends.

Lernserver Universität Münster

(pavilion 14, stand 27)

Saturday 31 May, 20:00 & Sunday 1 June, 13:00

Problems with reading, spelling and arithmetic? Two presentations by Blicklabor on binocular movement, stability and hearing, which the sensory organs need in order to process information from the brain. We don't see with our eyes or hear with our ears, but with our brains. Come and find out for yourself.

Daily from Thursday 30 May to Sunday 1 June, 19:00

Children can test their German spelling skills with Lernserver, which offers online error correction together with a personalised performance profile and a special work plan.

Organiser: Lernserver Universität Münster

MACEDONIAN MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY ART

(pavilion 13, stand 40a)

Workshop: "Topos – dream pages"

Children will use art as a vehicle to create a book of their own dreams and wishes for children everywhere, using images and other experimental forms of narration. The workshop is based on the concept of MMCA's exhibition Topos and on temporary exhibitions at the museum in the past year. (It will be accompanied by photographs and slides of works in MMCA's exhibitions).

Duration: 45 minutes Catering to groups of 25-30 children every 45 minutes Ages: 6-12

Daily 10:00-12:00 & 18:00-20:00

Sponsored by the National Book Centre of Greece (EKEBI) and Mantoulidis Schools

Concerts

(pavilion 15, square)

Saturday 31 May, 19:00

A concert dedicated to Juan Ramon Jimenez
The year 2008 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the death of the leading Spanish writer and Nobel laureate Juan Ramon Jimenez. One of his most typical works is Platero y yo (Platero and I), where the hero and his donkey Platero travel through the villages and countryside of Spain, and which tackles timeless questions relating to humankind, nature and God. Castelnuevo Tedesco set their adventures to music.
Narration: Achilleas Anastasiadis
guitar: Kostas Makrygiannakis.

Sunday 1 June 19:00

Recital by Aiki Kaialoglou
"Poetry and music"
Classical guitar: Michalis Sourvinos